4 KEY SCREENS • 375×812 • MAY 2 2026

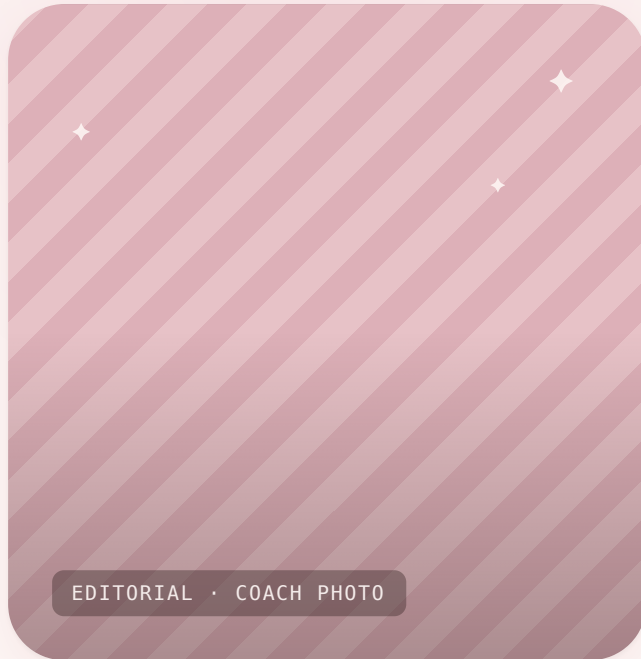

Following your hypothesis: dusty rose accent on a soft pink-cream base, Fraunces serif for emotional/branded type paired with DM Sans for utility. All imagery is striped placeholders — flagged for a real photo direction. Questions below the mockups.

Decisions I made (flag any)

- Sparkle restraint: 3 small ✨ glyphs on welcome hero only — no hearts, no decorative overload.
- Italic serif accent on emotional words ("strongest", "Today's your day") to add warmth without all-caps drama.
- Start button is dark cocoa, not pink — pink is reserved for accents/celebration; cocoa reads more premium and lets the ARROW dot pop in accent.
- Coach avatar uses a pink-to-berry radial gradient as a placeholder for Jeni's real photo — which I'd treat as warm, editorial, soft-lit.
- Onboarding emoji are restrained (1 per option) — could be swapped for line illustrations if emoji feels too consumer.
